MAKE A DIFFERENCE DAY COMMUNITY MEETING

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): Killeen Volunteers will host a Make a Difference Day community meeting Thursday, September 8, at 6 p.m. at Killeen Community Center-Room 200, 2201 E. Veterans Memorial Boulevard.

Individuals and groups wishing to propose or adopt Make a Difference Day projects should attend this planning meeting.

Make a Difference Day, the national day of doing good, will be Saturday, October 22. Thousands of local volunteers will join millions across the country to make an impact in their communities.

Killeen had more than 3,000 volunteers last year take part in 68 projects including collecting necessities for Families in Crisis, collecting food for the Food Care Center, yard maintenance for the elderly and a food drive for Mission Soup Kitchen.

For more information on Make a Difference Day or other volunteer opportunities, contact the Killeen Volunteer Center at 501-7878.
